CONSENT TO WAIVE EXTRADITION

I, PRESTON, RICHARD WILSON JR, having been arrested in the State of Maryland, Baltimore County, and being charged by complaint with being a fugitive from the State of VIRGINIA, acknowledge that I have appeared before this Court on this

28th day of August 2017

have been informed that the State of VIRGINIA has charged me with the crime(s) of Willfully discharge firearm within 1000 feet of a public, private or parochial elementary, middle or high school and has demanded my surrender.

It has further been explained that I have the right to demand a warrant of extradition; and that I have the right to test in this court the legality of my arrest by filing a writ of habeas corpus in accordance with Criminal Procedure, § 9-110, Annotated Code of Maryland.

Having had these rights explained to me, and understanding each, I do freely and voluntarily waive each and every one of them, and I am willing to submit to the custody of the State of VIRGINIA without any further legal proceedings in the State of Maryland.

I have reviewed this document fully, and it has been read to me in its entirety. I understand that by signing below I am waiving my rights as indicated herein.
